2. Little Red Riding Hood Went To Granny's House

Part 2

But in the forest, there also lived a very big wolf. He saw Little Red Riding Hood and ran up to her. The wolf felt very hungry and he wanted to eat Red Riding Hood but he couldn't because he knew there were wood cutters nearby. "Where are you going, little girl?" asked the wolf. "I'm going to my grandmother's house," she said. "She lives just up this road. I'm going to take cake and wine to her." Then, the wolf had an idea; he thought, "If I go to the grandmother's house first, I can wait for the little girl there and eat both of them." So he ran ahead of Little Red Riding Hood all the way to Granny's house.

3. Little Red Riding Hood Went To Granny's House

Part 3

The wolf arrived at the grandmother's house, opened the door and found Granny sleeping in bed. He went to the bed and ate her up in one big bite. Then, he put on her clothes and glasses, closed the door but left it unlocked, and got in bed.
5 Little Red Riding Hood arrived soon after. She knocked on the door and heard a voice say, "Who's there?"

"It's me, Red Riding Hood. I came to bring you cake and wine." "Come in, dear," said the wolf. Red Riding Hood opened the door and went inside. It was very dark and she 10 couldn't see well.

"Oh Granny, what big ears you have," she said. "So I can hear you better," said the wolf. Little Red Riding Hood came closer to the bed.

"But Granny, what big eyes you have." "So I can see you 15 better," said the wolf.

"Oh! But Granny, what big teeth you have." "So I can eat you better," said the wolf and jumped out of bed.

4. Little Red Riding Hood Went To Granny's House

Part 4

But then, he felt pain in his stomach. He fell on the floor and started to throw up and out came Granny. She was very angry with the wolf and told him to get out, but he couldn't walk. He needed help so finally, Granny and Little Red Riding Hood helped him up and took him outside. They felt sorry for the wolf and gave him some potatoes and tomatoes to eat for dinner. The wolf decided never to eat people again because he thought it was too much trouble so he became a vegetarian. And Little Red Riding Hood learned to always be careful about speaking to strangers.
