Benny is rich. He lives in a Hollywood mansion with a swimming pool. Inside the house, there's an art studio. Benny likes to paint in his free time. It's relaxing for him. He's a pretty good painter, actually. In addition to a really nice house, Benny has a very beautiful girlfriend. Her name is Amanda. They started dating while working in Morocco. Benny was making a movie there. You see, Benny is a movie director and Amanda was a make-up artist on the movie set. They had worked together before, but Benny hadn't really noticed her until they went to Africa. That was five years ago and they've been together since then. They're very happy with each other, but they're not a typical couple. There's a big age difference between them. Benny is 58 years old and Amanda is only 31. Some people say that he's too old for her. Others say that she's only interested in his money. They say that if Benny weren't rich, Amanda would leave him.
