(Have volunteers read out each story. Point out the regret patterns after each story.)

1. 下の4つの例文を読みましょう。

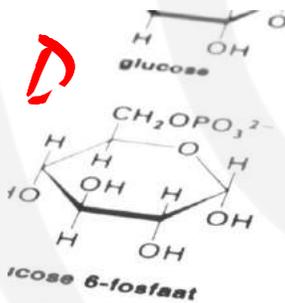

1. I didn't save any money when I was in my twenties and thirties. Now, I don't have any savings and life is hard.

I wish I had saved some money.

2. When I was young, I hated playing the piano so I stopped. Now, I love music but unfortunately, I can't play any instruments.

I wish I hadn't stopped playing the piano.

3. I didn't study enough for my chemistry test last week and I got a bad grade.

I should have studied more.

4. I had a job interview last week but I didn't get the job.

I shouldn't have colored my hair.

(After the students match the situations (purple) to the regrets (green), have them pair up and check (S1 = purple (left), S2 = green (right) / S2 = purple, S1 = green). Then, check as a class - you say the purple (or green) and call on individual students to say the green (or purple)).

2a. Matching: 左側1-8と右側A-Hを組み合わせてみましょう。(+)は肯定文 (-)は否定文です。

I should have / I wish I had (+)

Conversation: Lenny and Daniel の会話を聞いて、下の1に続く正しい順番を、2-5の数字を付けて会話の流れをつかみましょう。次に、適切な下線部分にその番号の文を書き込みましょう。

3 Well, the problem is money.

5 Yeah. But (I don't) regret going to Australia.
If (I) hadn't gone there, (I) wouldn't have met
(my) girlfriend.

2 I mean, it's really hard to find a job with a history degree.
(I wish I) had majored in business or computers.

1 Unfortunately, (I) majored in history.

4 (I) had saved some money, but (I) went to Australia for six months and spent all of it there.

Lenny - What was your major in college?

Daniel - #1. Unfortunately, I majored in history.

Lenny - What do you mean by "unfortunately"?

Daniel - #2. I mean, it's really hard to find a job with a history degree.
(I wish I) had majored in business or computers.

Lenny - Why don't you go back to school?

Daniel - #3. Well, the problem is money.

Lenny - Don't you have any savings?

Daniel - #4. I had saved some money, but I went to Australia for six months and spent all of it there.

Lenny - You should have been more careful with your money.

Daniel - #5. Yeah. But (I don't) regret going to Australia.
If (I) hadn't gone there, (I) wouldn't have met (my) girlfriend.

(First, have the students ask you the questions and listen to the answers. They should not be writing—only listening. The exposure to the correct answer will help them to write good answers.)

3b.

Reading comprehension questions:

1. What did Daniel study in college?
He studied history.

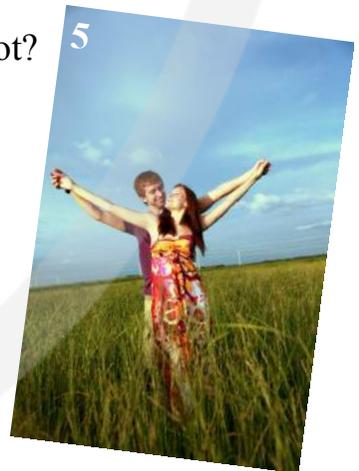

2a. Does he regret that? Why or why not?
Yes, he does, because it's really hard to find a job with a history degree.

2b. What does he wish he had studied?
